GET YOUR PASSPORT STAMPED (AND KEEP IT TOO) WITHOUT LEAVING PAINE FIELD

(Mukilteo, Washington) – Starting May 1, 2011, the Paine Field Partners, four major aviation attractions located around Snohomish County, Washington’s airport, Paine Field: Future of Flight Aviation Center & Boeing Tour, Historic Flight Foundation, Flying Heritage Collection and the Museum of Flight Restoration Center will begin selling the Paine Field Passport, a collector’s keepsake-quality document, that gives visitors a 20 percent discount on admission September - May and a 20 percent discount in shops and cafes year-round. The Paine Field Passport costs $10 and is valid for up to one year, which allows visitors the opportunity to visit all four venues in one day or take a more leisurely approach.

At each aviation attraction, Paine Field Passport holders receive a “visa stamp” to obtain the discounts. The passport features descriptions of each aviation attraction, a map of the points of interest at Paine Field and a bookmark listing special offers.

Paine Field Passports can be purchased at any of the four aviation attractions:

- Future of Flight Aviation Center & Boeing Tour, 8415 Paine Field Blvd., Mukilteo, WA 98275
- Historic Flight Foundation, 10719 Bernie Webber Dr, Mukilteo, WA 98275
- Flying Heritage Collection, 3407 109th Street Southwest, Everett, WA 98204
- Museum of Flight Restoration Center, 2909 100th St. SW, Everett, WA 98204
